careers, the foundation laid in the early years will have lasting effect on their personality," he said.

He encouraged students to trace India's journey to freedom shortly after World War II. "Though India faced many challenges, both from outside and within the country, the brave armed forces protected our motherland. The armed forces have spent many sleepless nights and moved in adverse and difficult terrain," he recounted and hailed the soldiers' sacrifice as a guiding force for the youth.

Recalling the establishment of Sainik Schools, he said the Bijapur school occupies a special place among the 64 Sainik Schools in the country.

Retired teacher of the school G D Kale was felicitated by the President on the occasion. Chief Minister Siddaramiah spoke. Water Resource Minister M B Patil, IT and BT Minister S R Patil, Minister for Primary and High School Education Kimmane Ratnakar and others were present.
